

College Application Week: Help for Undocumented Students

During the 2002 General Legislative Session, the Utah Legislature passed a law allowing undocumented students who meet certain requirements to pay resident tuition costs, which are less expensive than non-resident tuition costs (Utah Code Ann. §53B-8-106).

Below are instructions to help undocumented students apply to colleges during College Application Week. If you have questions about whether the law applies to you, please ask your school counselor.
