SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION PROCESS

Applicants must use the online application to complete and submit all the required information in order to apply for the Navy ROTC scholarship.

This online application is extensive and may require several hours to complete. You are able to start the application and save your progress as you complete each section. We have provided an Application Information Checklist to assist you in gathering information and to streamline the process of applying for a scholarship.

Download an Application Information Checklist PDF

Applicants must enter five Navy ROTC affiliated colleges or universities in their scholarship application. If selected, we will try to place your scholarship at your first choice school, but due to limits on the number of scholarships that may be placed at each NROTC school, your scholarship may be placed at your second through fifth choice school. The scholarship offer is for a specific school and may not be used at any other NROTC school without prior approval. You must apply to, be accepted at, and enroll in your assigned school in order to utilize the scholarship. Applying to more than just your first choice school will increase the chances for acceptance and enrollment and will therefore increase the opportunities to use a scholarship if selected.

Each applicant must also select an academic program in which he or she intends to major. All academic programs fall into three tiers relative to the Navy's technical needs. (See the Scholarship Selection Criteria "Tab" on the "Program-Info" page.)

Scholarships will be awarded to a NROTC school in conjunction with the academic major and tier the applicant specified on their application. If offered the scholarship, the student is expected to attend the school where their scholarship is placed. If you no longer desire or are not admitted to the school where your scholarship is placed, you may request a change of placement to move your scholarship to another school. If that school has room for another scholarship, we will move your scholarship to that school. If not, you may request to be placed on that school's wait-list and we will try to move your scholarship there if room becomes available. Requests are processed and approved by the NROTC Placement Office. The student must be mindful if they choose a cross-town school that there may be cross-town commuting costs and class timing issues which will need to be resolved. The school you are enrolled in must support the academic major or equivalent for which the scholarship was awarded. Also, the student must have applied for admission to and been accepted at any school they wish to utilize the scholarship.

An example may help clarify this:

Applicant has selected the Navy Option at the beginning of her application. She selects Howard University as her first choice on the scholarship application. She selects her other four choices. She selects Astrophysics (a Tier 2 major) as her intended degree program. If she is selected for a scholarship and it is placed at Howard University, she may only utilize it at Howard University. If she wishes to change the location of the scholarship at any other Navy ROTC affiliated college or university, she must have applied for admission and been accepted at the new school, as well as be approved for the scholarship to be moved to another school. She must declare Astrophysics as her major at the new school, as she may choose another Tier 2 or Tier 2 major.

FAQs Part 1

- Am I signing up for military service when I apply?
 - No. You do not incur any military service or obligation by applying alone. You must win the scholarship, accept it, and begin the program through Freshman year before incurring military commitment. If you win and accept the scholarship, you can choose to deny up until the first semester starts if you have competing priorities.
- Can I apply to different military branches?
 - YES. If you are interested in all branches of military, you can apply to the ROTC scholarship for each branch as well as the Service Academies (USNA, USMA, USAFA, USCGA, USMMA)

FAQs Part 2

- Can I apply for Navy and Marine Option NROTC at the same time?
 - No. Because both the Marine Corps and Navy fall under the Department of the Navy, you can only select one option during the application process
- Can I switch to a different service if I change my mind?
 - Yes. It is not uncommon for NROTC members to switch from Navy to Marines or vice versa during the program through Junior year, though additional paperwork and board processes will be required. Transfers to other branches (Army, Air Force) are also possible, but require even more justification and paperwork and may be significantly harder to get approved.
- Can I apply for the Scholarship and go on my religious mission?
 - YES. Scholarship winners who wish to attend their mission before college may submit to defer their scholarship until their return. It is HIGHLY recommended to apply while in high school vice after returning from mission due to the requirements needed to apply

United States Naval Academy

- Prestigious military academy that is similar to the NROTC program, offering full scholarship (including room, board, and fully funded meals, uniforms, books etc.). Military lifestyle is practically full-time, uniforms in classes, both military and civilian staff
- Must commission as either Marine Corps or Naval Officer upon graduation with minimum 5 years of Active Duty Service
- Consistently in top 20 in most national college rankings, great engineering and liberal arts programs. More summer training and even foreign travel/study abroad programs
- Similar basic eligibility as NROTC except also cannot have any dependents
- Students are technically active duty and supported by medical/dental clinic on campus
- Must also submit application to Congressman/Representative and win nomination – different for each legislator, but deadlines are usually in the fall
- Can take religious mission typically in between freshman and junior years or defer acceptance and take mission before first summer.
- Due to selectiveness of school, HIGHLY recommend applying to NROTC scholarship in addition to Academy
- Contact NROTC Coordinator for more information or go to <https://www.usna.edu/Admissions/>
